COACHING TESTIMONIALS

A business coach helps your business tackle specific tasks and objectives (for example, helping through the process of hiring team members, improving communications, reducing conflict, or building productive teams. The coach helps set the objectives, determines the number of sessions needed to meet the goal, and will develop long term strategies. Coaching with Marsha Petrie Sue changed my life. Prior to working with Marsha, I struggled with public speaking and delivering a succinct, authentic message. The guidance she provided was instrumental in my growth as a professional speaker for both in-person events and on camera presentations (videos, webinars, zoom, interviews and more!). Her expert coaching tips have ultimately led me to become a better leader and speaker. I truly appreciate the time she invested in me. She is an inspiration and a light to all those who know her.
